Attila Trilogy 1 William Napier

We are treated to a fine story of Attila's boyhood, and boy, William Napier is a genius writer! Every single words written on this book gave me a clear view of the settings. I can feel Attila's frustration, anger, a hint of sadness as well as the spark that will make him great, that will make him feared by the Romans.

I'll live with him giving Attila quotes from William Blake, if that's what the author needs to do to say what he has to say, spontaneously. If that's how the words come to him, and sound to his ear true.
