"We have gold because we cannot trust governments," President Herbert Hoover famously stated in 1933 to Franklin D. Roosevelt. (CBC News) [1] Anyone who seriously claims to trust the government is either a fool carrying an empty bag or a politician. This was the same year that Roosevelt enacted the Emergency Banking Act followed one month later by the Executive Order 6102.

As a safety content producer, I get the rare chance to look at countless standard operating procedures from a variety of large companies. We use these documents to write clear, friendly scripts, in order to produce training videos that will engage, increase learner understanding and recall. Nearly, 95% of the time, these standard operating procedures are really hard to read and understand.
