A riveting, first-person novel that holds true to the Gospels, all from our Hero's perspective. "This book will keep you captivated all the way through! You will not want to put it down until you finish. It deserves 10 stars!"

In The Flesh - My Story

In The Flesh is a perfect mix of great characterization, action, and old school romance. It is lush, emotionally gripping, and definitely red hot. She has created an elaborate world that has a lot of potential for future books of this trilogy. I am glad I had the pleasure to review this book..." — June 2009

Flesh is also linked with the body in 6:19; it contrasts with the mind in 7:25; the law working in one's bodily members (Romans 7:23) is the law of the flesh (Romans 7:25). The conflict between the law of sin in the members and the law in the mind in 7:25 was not the basis for the verdict of "no condemnation" in 8:1, as if God would overlook physical sin provided one's mind harbored good motives.
